

By Roy Rugdee

Zodiac 2010

 Aries: March 21 – April 20

 An all-or-nothing approach to life may see you going to extremes to achieve even the most modest aims in 2010. This celebrates the end of a very significant phase, and your confidence and motivation will be high for the next chapter. There may be some sadness or regret to deal with, but the planets provide inner strength and positive things to come. Perhaps you should contemplate cutting your losses and moving on, or at least try adding variety to the mix. You will have the knack for getting out of trouble at the last minute, but should be wary about pushing your luck. Despite your generous heart and spirit, you may feel used, manipulated or torn in two directions. What initially appears to be a daunting task or lost cause can be overcome through the power of positive thought. You don't trust your own ability to succeed. Yet it is high time you did!

Taurus: April 21 – May 21

 You are likely to derive great joy from being with others and engaging in new or unique experiences in 2010. People will be more flexible and understanding, so don't be afraid to bring up that unusual request. You may be surprised by an unexpected invitation, while others welcome a friend or family member back into the fold. Expect to play the role of leader, bringing people together for a common cause and motivating them and their talents. By socialising with successful wheelers and dealers, you'll pick up some hot tips which you can use and work with. Your intuition may have sense things and this is really going to provide some valuable answers to important decisions. This is the time to set financial goals and nurture your dreams.

Gemini: May 22 – June 21

 Improvements to take place which assist in the transformation of your future in 2010. You finally get to see just how much your recent spate of hard work has won you. You'll enjoy some kind of triumph in connection with your future or career. Creative and positive energy help you to formulate new and positive goals for the future. You will be back in the box seat with a proposal, promotion or praise for your work afford. You do things in a "big way" and your optimistic outlook will enable you to tackle things head-on. You certainly aren't likely to look askance at the great chances that are awaiting you. You will feel that your talents are finally appreciated and career ticking away with efficiency. You are suddenly feeling very optimistic about a career goal.

Cancer: 22 June – July 22

 You may get attracted to new ideas, perhaps even a belief system that is quite different in 2010. Your networking skills are excellent your input will be much in demand. Best chance all year to initiate group projects or improve your skills through study. You might be encouraged to investigate a new area of learning or perhaps even to go back to study. You appear to be attracting the right people into your life at the right time, as a result, progress will be swift. You may feel optimistic about the future or you will make plans that take you away from your usual routine. If you have the means to make a move, travel, or upgrade your appearance and surrounding, capitalise on it! This period is opening up a whole channel of favourable circumstances in matters of education and travel.

Leo: 23 July – August 22

 A matter that's vital to your financial security or peace of mind should turn out extremely well in 2010. Focus in on shared financial arrangements, sex, power, and gritty emotional dramas. Make new investments or increase anything that could be termed as joint resources. Gains of another kind are possible by way of a gift, inheritance or joint venture. Money are earmarked for special purpose, but you are confident of making up the shortfall. You might be reaping the benefits of combining resources, sharing or emotional bonding. Opportunities for new source of income, credit lines or loans made available, even secret deals. Picking may be slim in affairs of the heart, but financially the potential exists to increase income and savings.

♍ Virgo: August 23 – September 22

♋ ♀ ♀ If you haven't been enjoying the benefits of a close partnership, good things are happening from 2010 on. Your business or romantic partner will be supportive and their good luck is also likely to rub off on you. You are entering a cycle of closer co-operation, shared responsibilities and greater harmony in relationships. Your relationship could build to a new highpoint, or plans that have been hanging in the balance could come together. Despite a recent setback for you, changing fortunes will gradually restore lost confidence and renew your faith. You may be able to enjoy a period of profound harmony in partnership or other long-term relationship. A scheme you cooked up, or relationship that promise so much, will suddenly start to bear fruits.

♎ Libra: September 23 – October 23

♋ 🐕 🐈 Your confidence could take a low in 2010, and you ought to take care of your outlook and eating habits. Your responsibilities could increase tremendously and your situations may become unmanageable. You'll have to down-scale, down-size and be calculative with most things to avoid being quickly broke. Your energies may be scattered and unless you work to plan, results will fall below expectations. The chance to be with someone important who you don't see often enough will generate memories to cherish. Illness can be hopeful under present passage, or a "healer" comes and acts as a catalyst to improving health. You can turn negative situations to your advantage, but you must be prepared to act swiftly and take cautious risks.

♏ Scorpio: October 24 – November 22

♥️ 🧶 You will be at your sparkling best in the company of children, the younger at heart and creative people in 2010. You'll meet your true soul-mate someone you can share your whole heart, mind, and spirit. You are in the midst of a powerful transformation, attitude about love are inexorably transform. An important love or friendship can bloom about now, great for meeting of the heart and mind. If you think you can do certain things, you have the luck and support to make it happen. Your mind will be enthusiastic and will feel stimulated to go out and meet new people. In affairs of the heart or with mind over matters, you may be anxious to get things moving. While you may be apt think big and exaggerate issues, you will have a fantastic ability to win.

♐ Sagittarius: November 23 – December 21

🏠 🏢 🏛️ House-hunting is especially favoured now, since your instincts on real-estate are extremely good. You might wish to start a major redecoration project, looking for a new house or apartment in 2010. Real-estate dealings will be positive and you'll accomplish goals that will have big bearing. Pick up on the energy and enthusiasm of someone nearby, make these quality your own. You'll be happily involved in family matters, possibility because of a wedding or the birth of a child. This is a good time to house-hunt, purchase a new home, or fix up the one you are living in. You will be less likely to rock the boat and more intent on creating a harmonious environment. There could be a refreshing change of scene, addition to the family, domestic reshuffle or reunions.

Capricorn: December 22 – January 20

   With planetary energy favouring expression in 2010, there may be new avenues or relationships to explore. You've been dealing with passion in all your communications; you're probably quite skilled in that department now. Variety is the key and rather than making wholesale changes, you would do better to interact or focus in short bursts. There is a general sense of optimism and the ability to gravitate toward fortunate situations through congenial contacts. Even people you once deemed difficult to please or connect with could soon throw their weight behind one of your ideas. Periodically throughout, you should plan a short getaway or isolate yourself from the hustle and bustle of life. Effective communication will be the way to your success during this time.

Aquarius: January 21 – February 19

  You could be in the enviable position of being able to display your wares to others. A strong sense of certainty sees you making commitments or investments you might normally shy away from. You can afford to be optimistic about new ventures and confident about situations that appear to be turning a corner. You'll have a lot more opportunities to make money and manage in creative and inspired ways. You feel perched on the brink of liberation from money problems and responsibilities. 2010 brings improvement on your luck and some marvellous opportunities to financial growth. You will experience Hugh fluctuation and transformation surrounding your financial status. Don't be naïve about money management, though you need to keep an open mind.

Pisces: February 20 – March 20

  You can start putting down solid foundations for the future with the present element of luck in 2010. A strong desire to better yourself or set up more secure future will be the motivating force now. Enforcing or strengthening new habits and other personal-improvement issues looms big now. Efforts towards self-growth or discovery or enhance personal power will meet with success. After months of uncertainty in a situation, you will finally sense the tide turning in your favour. You have the sense that you can do things and whatever you attempt will be successful. This is just the time when good fortune could land on your lap because you believe that it could happen. Signal from the cosmos that your 2010 of success and personal well-being is here and not to be denied.

www.rrugdee.com

roy@royalastrologers.com - Perth W.A  0423 948111 - Singapore  97543540